In First Line of Defense, award-winning journalist and author Michael Weiss delivers a gripping account of the battle against ISIS, one of the most ruthless terrorist organizations in history.

Based on exclusive interviews with key players in the fight against ISIS, including General Stanley McChrystal and former CIA Director John Brennan, Weiss provides a behind-the-scenes look at the strategies, successes, and failures of the U.S.-led coalition.

Weiss argues that the fight against ISIS is not just a military campaign, but a multifaceted effort that requires a combination of hard power and soft power. He also highlights the importance of building partnerships with local forces and understanding the root causes of terrorism.
