

Life in Flat: The Autobiography of Phil Woods

Phil Woods was one of the most influential jazz musicians of the 20th century. His alto saxophone playing was characterized by its warmth, lyricism, and technical virtuosity. He was a member of some of the most important jazz groups of the era, including the Dizzy Gillespie Big Band, the Quincy Jones Big Band, and the Thad Jones/Mel Lewis Orchestra. He also led his own groups, including the Phil Woods Quartet and the Phil Woods Quintet.
