Haiku is a traditional Japanese form of poetry that consists of three lines, with five syllables in the first line, seven syllables in the second line, and five syllables in the third line. Haiku often focus on nature or the seasons, and they often evoke a sense of peace and tranquility. The prompts in this book are designed to help you reflect on your own life and experiences, and to explore your thoughts and feelings in a new way.

This book is a great way to start or end your day, or to take a break from the hustle and bustle of life. It is also a great way to connect with your inner self and to find a moment of peace and reflection. Whether you are a seasoned journaler or you are just starting out, The Big Book of Small Haikus for Reflective Journaling is the perfect book for you.

Here are a few examples of the haikus in this book:

- The sun rises bright,
A new day begins.
What will it bring?

- Rain falls on the roof,
The world is washed clean.
A time for reflection.

- In the forest's depths,
A sense of peace and calm.
Nature's sanctuary.
