By [Author's Name]

The babaylan is a figure shrouded in mystery and intrigue. For centuries, these shamans have played a vital role in Philippine society, serving as healers, diviners, and spiritual guides. But in recent years, the babaylan has become increasingly marginalized, their knowledge and practices fading into obscurity.

In her groundbreaking book, We Are No Longer Babaylan, [Author's Name] seeks to uncover the hidden histories of these enigmatic figures. Drawing on extensive research and interviews with contemporary babaylans, she paints a vivid portrait of their lives, beliefs, and practices.

We Are No Longer Babaylan is a must-read for anyone interested in Filipino culture, history, or gender studies. It is a timely and important work that sheds light on a hidden part of Philippine society and challenges us to rethink our understanding of gender, spirituality, and healing.
