In Where To Belong, an insightful and moving play by award-winning playwright Laura Wade, we are introduced to a diverse group of characters who are all searching for a sense of belonging in a rapidly changing world.

There's Henry, a British-born Ghanaian who feels like an outsider in both his home country and his adopted country. There's Meena, an Indian immigrant who is struggling to find her place in a new culture. And there's Fatima, a Syrian refugee who is haunted by the memories of her past.

As these characters navigate the challenges of their lives, they learn that home is not always a physical place. It is a place where they feel safe, loved, and accepted. It is a place where they can be themselves.

Where To Belong is a powerful and timely play that explores the complex themes of identity, belonging, and the search for home. It is a play that will resonate with anyone who has ever felt like an outsider or who has ever searched for a place where they truly belong.
